

Hello all hope you have had a good month so far, things have been going flat out here and we have finished our first run of Todd Weston spurs in the full polo and polocrosse range of rowels, shanks and shapes, they look great and really reduce the chances of cutting your horse- you should check them out on the website. Well we are coming into Christmas time of year now, it's a great time to get pressies for your kids (and yourselves) and we are sure we will have something in our range that will suit your polocrosse requirements for next season, we also have some great specials on offer so visit our website and have a look. In the news department here in SA there is a camp being run for the juniors in Kwazulu Natal where one of our lady players – Caroline Minnaar Takes in a bunch of juniors for the week and they do a load of activities focused around polocrosse training and skills, it has proven to be a very popular week for the juniors with numbers growing hugely every year, this year kids from the cape will even be there, so they can look forward to a really entertaining week. In England Annie Waterer is looking for someone to come work for her next year, they are looking for someone with experience to play and school horse in polocrosse for more details we have her posted on the horses link under polocrosse on our website, it will be a great opportunity for a youngster looking to do some travelling and keep playing polocrosse if you know of anyone or also have an opening don't hesitate to contact us. In other news we are very excited to hear that the American tours are being finalised its great to hear that they will be coming out here and we all are looking forward to some exciting polocrosse, along with the quadrangular series and the English tours as well as some rumblings about next years Zim open we have some great polocrosse to look forward to next year and cant wait. Well that's all I have for you guys this month hope you have a good Christmas and will update you again in the new year

Till next year
